

Orakzai

Explore the Unexplored
Heaven of Pakistan

Islamabad to Orakzai	250 KM
Peshawar to Orakzai	132 KM
Kohat to Orakzai	64 KM

KP'S FIRST EVER
TOURISM
24/7 HELPLINE
1422

@KPTOURISM

Natural Scenery:

Orakzai District is known for its natural beauty. It is surrounded by majestic mountains, lush green valleys, and pristine rivers. The most popular tourist spots in the district are Kalaya, Samana, Gulistan Fort, Feroz Khel, Zaira, Landok, Manawar Cave, Khalwat, Toi Khula Waterfall, and Spinkai Raghzai. Visitors can enjoy hiking, camping, and picnicking in these areas.

Historical Landmarks:

Orakzai District is also home to many historical landmarks. The most famous among them is the Gurguri Fort, which dates back to the Mughal era. The fort was built by the Mughal Emperor Akbar, and it served as a military post for the Mughal army. Other historical sites in the district include the Qila Darbar, Shahi Masjid, and Khooni Chowk.

Cultural Festivals:

Orakzai District is home to a diverse population, and it celebrates many cultural festivals throughout the year. The most famous among them is the Eid ul Fitr, which marks the end of the holy month of Ramadan. Other festivals celebrated in the district include the Urs of Ghamkol Sharif and the Basant Festival

Orakzai is a district located in the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province of Pakistan. It is situated in the northwest of the country and shares its borders with the districts of Khyber, Kurram, and Hangu. The district has an area of 1,538 square kilometers and a population of approximately 400,000 people. The main language spoken in Orakzai is Pashto, and the majority of the population is Muslim. The district is known for its natural beauty, with mountains, valleys, and rivers that attract tourists and hikers. Agriculture and livestock farming are the main sources of income for the people of Orakzai, with wheat, maize, and vegetables being the major crops grown in the district. The Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa is taking steps to improve the infrastructure and economy of the region, with projects such as the construction of roads and the provision of electricity to rural areas.

Handicrafts:

Orakzai District is famous for its handicrafts, including pottery, embroidery, and weaving. Visitors can buy these handicrafts from the local bazaars and markets.

Cuisine:

Orakzai District is known for its delicious cuisine. The most famous dishes in the district include chapli kebab, tandoori chicken, and daal chawal. Visitors can enjoy these dishes at the local restaurants and food stalls.

Overall, Orakzai District is a must-visit destination for anyone interested in exploring the natural beauty, historical significance, and cultural diversity of Pakistan.

